While you ensure compliance with the CFPB, your dealer partners are scrambling to recoup lost profit potential from reduced dealer markup.

You can focus on both compliance and differentiating your institution by increasing dealership profitability. Including products like a vehicle service contract or vehicle return in your loans gives you ultimate control over pricing, and therefore compliance. Dealerships can still increase their profit through the sale of upgrades.

With almost 40 years of developing and delivering profitable strategies for dealerships, EFG knows how to give your institution the edge in the marketplace. Put our knowledge, expertise and product innovation to work today.
